Just a Word ...

by Fr. Harvey

"Love in autumn is not afraid of death. The spirit of love has done his work and mankind is together, united with him. Love is filled to overflowing."

These lines speak a special truth about the autumn death of anyone, especially a former pastor.

Msgr. G. Warren Peek

The Rev. Monsignor G. Warren Peek died on Wednesday evening, November 10, 1976, in Garden Grove California at the age of 81. Msgr. Peek served as pastor of this parish from 1932 to 1940. He then was transferred to St. Thomas Parish, Ann Arbor, which he served until 1969, when he retired, having celebrated his Golden Jubilee as a priest.

Prior to coming to St. John's as pastor, Msgr. served this parish as an Associate pastor. According to our parish records, Msgr. Peek celebrated his first baptism in this parish on February 2, 1925 when he baptized Phyllis E. LeClair, now married to Leo Wagner.

One of the lasting credits to Msgr. Peek's long years of dedicated service to God's people stands here in Ypsilanti. During the depths of the Great Depression, with the cooperation of St. John's faithful parishioners, our present church building and rectory were erected for the sum total of $98,000.00. In a matter of months after assuming the pastorate here following the death of Fr. Linskey, he retired the debt which still remained on the present basement which had been serving as the church for 10 years or more. The cornerstone of our present church building was laid September 11, 1932 and the structure was dedicated by Bishop Gallagher on June 4, 1933.

Msgr. Peek was always proud, and rightly so, of the eight years he was pastor to this parish. On more than one occasion, he personally related to me many happy moments of his

Campaign for Human Development Collection

... will be taken up today. Thank you; and God bless you for your response. In these last years we have touched the lives of 1000 groups of poor people through projects of economic development, social development, legal advocacy, communications, etc., made possible by the Campaign - by your contributions. In the name of all whose tomorrow became a new life as well as a new day, thank you. The grants were "seed money" to begin a growth of its own so that new grants could be made to still more and more different groups each year - in an ever widening harvest of hope and of change. And, in a similar way the Campaign for Human Development has seen great growth in the Hope and the Involvement of those less-poor, perhaps, but who yearn for Justice nonetheless and who grow in sacrifice so that together we can have hope, growth, jusice - as we respond in love to the Gospel of Jesus Christ and bring closer His Kingdom.

An Act of Thanksgiving

Hunger remains a way of life for hundreds of millions who are close to the heart of God. Jesus said: "I was hungry and you fed me (or did not feed me) ... As you have done to the least of these my brothers, you have done to me."

Last fall a nationwide offering of letters from the churches asked Congress to make the right of everyone to a nutritionally adequate diet a basic part of U.S. policy. Letters poured in. As a result, Congress is considering adoption of a right-to-food resolution.

Now we need letters asking the newly-elected President and the newly-elected Congress for an action that would begin to implement the right to food: U.S. participation in a world food reserve program. A food reserve program is essential in our efforts to reduce hunger. Your help is urgently needed. Please write to:

1. President-elect
2. Your U.S. Representative, Washington, D.C. 20515 or Representative-elect (use local address) and your U.S. Senators, Washington, D.C. 20510 or Senator-elect (use local address).

Urge them to seek a national food reserve, as part of an international network of reserves. Mention the right to food. Write your own letters. Address and stamp the envelopes and put them in the Sunday collection basket as an act of Thanksgiving.

Thanksgiving Clothing Collection St. John's Parish

From November 21
Through 30
Packing Date:
December 1-2-3
Drop-Off Point:
Hall between schools

* * * * *

Each year, parishes in the United States Conference of Catholic Relief Services take a collection of used clothing which is used to benefit millions of poverty-stricken people around the globe. Last year alone, CRS distributed some 11.5 million tons of used clothing and bedding to the overseas poor in 49 countries. Without your support at the parish level, this could never have been accomplished. The limited financial resources of CRS would never permit the purchase of such huge quantities of wearing apparel and blankets.

* * * * *

In our parish we are asking you:

1) Bring only light clothing (Men, women, children's), Infant infant clothing, and bedding. We are not asking for heavy clothing or shoes. Please do not bring them here to be sorted ... they can be taken to House By The Side of the Road or Thrift Shop.

2) Bring only clothing that can be used ... we cannot use clothing considered rags by you. Keep them for your use or discard them ... it is always amazing how much comes in that we must throw away. If there are paint spots, tears, no buttons, they cannot be used. We sort clothes only ... we do not sew on buttons and otherwise mend.

3) Packing dates will be December 1-2-3 from 9:00 to 5:00 p.m. in the warm hall area between the religion center and Needham Hall. There will be boxes marked for light clothing, infant clothing, and bedding. When you arrive to help, put items brought in into the proper boxes. There will be twine there for closing which you can do when boxes are completely filled. There are also labels to be placed on the boxes indicating the contents.

4) We are in need of volunteers for the job of packing. If you can spend an hour or so on any of the December dates listed above, please call Stella Swope at 483-0874 and volunteer your services. Anyone who signed up for White Elephant on Time and Talent is welcome to help also since this takes the place of the sales postponed until warmer weather. White Elephant Chairpersons will spearhead this endeavor.

5) Parishioners who have reasonable size boxes for packing clothing are also asked to drop them off during these next two weeks so that we have enough boxes to work with. Perhaps you know a store which has good size ones and can pick them up.

We will appreciate all parish efforts to make this drive successful as in the past years.

years lived here, always quick to remember the great spirit of cooperation and support he felt from St. John's parishioners. I could only assure him that a similar spirit has continued to "bloom and grow".

One year ago, Msgr. Peek paid us a call while visiting in Ann Arbor. He was interested in looking over the church hall which was in the process of being renovated. He had kept tabs of the renovation project via the Ypsilanti Catholic which he received by mail weekly. He was elated with the project, unfinished though it was at the time. As we stood in the hall, Monsignor began to laugh as he recalled coming to Fr. Linskey's funeral Mass in the fall of 1931. "All I could do was to pity the poor guy who would succeed Fr. Linskey - a basement church, not much to look at, movable chairs and kneelers, all marked with water lines from previous floods - what a sight! And I was the poor guy who was sent here."

Fortunate for this community was the ministry of G. Warren Peek, a builder not only of buildings but of a community of faith. Only when such a people exists does a building even become necessary for its gathering in the Lord's name. "When the chief Shepherd appears you will win for yourselves the unfading crown of glory. (1 Pet. 5) May the Lord grant him peace.

Lord,
may those whom You have called home
rest in the radiance
of heaven's light +

In the Peace of Christ

William H. (Bill) Krips, age 65, died on Thursday, November 11, 1976 in St. Joseph Hospital. Bill was St. John's most recent convert. He made the Profession of Faith, was confirmed and received Holy Eucharist (Viaticum) from his hospital bed on November 3, 1976. Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated by Fr. Harvey on Saturday, November 13, 1976. Burial followed in St. John's Cemetery.

Bill is survived by his wife, Eva (Boots), three sons, William of Houston, Timothy of Plymouth, Thomas of Houston and one daughter, Mrs. Richard (Patricia) Pelletier of Frankenmuth. Six grandchildren also survive.

Our parish community also extends prayerful sympathy to the family of Edna O'Sullivan who died on Thursday, November 11th at the age of 71. Mrs. O'Sullivan, a former Ypsilanti resident until 1954, was an active participant in the life of St. John's parish. One daughter, Mrs. William (Mary Ann) Tice, is presently a parishioner here.

A Mass was offered at Parkview Convalescent Home on November 1, 1976 at 2:30 p.m. by Father Jules Meyer for Andrew and Elizabeth Nyitray and Jim Nyitray at the request of Helen Petraska and Margaret Breitner.

"I assure you, as often as you did it for one of my least brothers, you did it for me." (Matthew 25:40)

The catechists are initiating a new project with the students in the religious education program. Hopefully each class will be "adopting" a few shut-ins or older members of our parish. The aim of this project is two-fold; those who need the children's love and concern will receive it while the children will have the opportunity to learn the true meaning of loving as Christ has taught us.

This project could involve the students in the following ways:

1. Praying for them, especially when they are in ill health.
2. Occasional letters from the class.
3. Making and selecting greeting cards on special days.

Reminders:

1. There will be no school Wednesday, November 24 for the children - grades 1 through 6 (Thanksgiving Vacation). There will also be no preschool classes, Sunday, November 28 because of the holiday.
2. The children's Thanksgiving Liturgy will be Wednesday, November 24 at 7:30 p.m. in the church. There will be a rehearsal for this liturgy with the children Tuesday, November 23 at 4:00 p.m. in the center library.
3. The final parent and child preparation for reception of First Eucharist will be Monday evening, November 22 at 7:00 p.m.

Welcome

Last Saturday, November 13th, Miss Vicki Hughes made her Profession of Faith and was received into the Church by Father Burns. She had completed a full course of instructions in the teachings of the Church at St. Thomas in Ann Arbor. Congratulations, Vicki!

Found in the Church

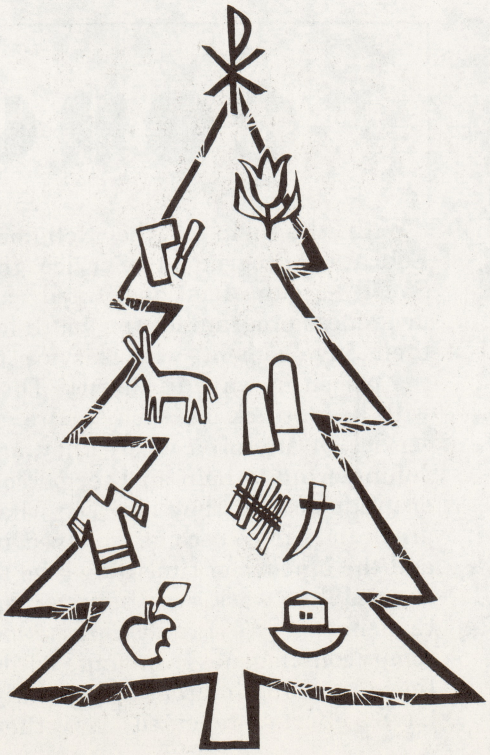
Pocket-sized Edition of Bible, "revised standard version" green leather cover, gold edges.

Would you like something unique for Advent? Do you want a "conversation piece" for your home or class, something different from what your friends have? Then you will want a Jesse Tree.

What is a Jesse Tree? It is a small tree decorated with symbols portraying the spiritual heritage of Jesus. It is a kind of family tree which was suggested by Isaiah's prophecy (11:1): "There shall come forth a shoot from the stump of Jesse." Typical symbols used are the apple for Adam and Eve, an ark for Noah, star of Bethlehem for Christ's birth, etc. They can be as simple or elaborate as you want.

How can one make and use a Jesse Tree? First, choose a shapely tree branch, either dry or evergreen, two or three feet high. Place it in a pot of earth or plaster, and cover the pot with bright paper. Or choose a background of burlap or fabric and make a tree on it for a banner.

Then make the symbols and tie them to the branches or glue them on the banner. There is a symbol for each day's Bible story - twenty-nine in all. The one for Christmas Day is to be placed on the top of the tree. With careful trimming you will have a Jesse Tree you won't forget.

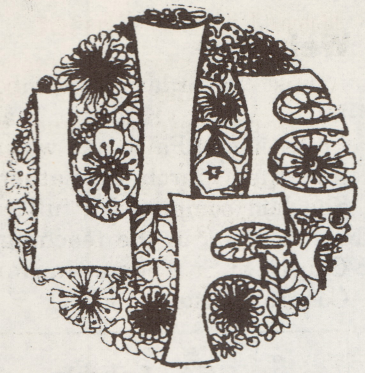


When Christmas falls on a day other than Sunday, you will not use all the symbols by Christmas Day. When using it in a classroom situation, you definitely won't have enough days for symbols. Therefore, you may either limit the number of symbols or use more than one on each day.

The Bible stories and explanations should be read together as a family or class. Treated prayerfully, it is an effective way of introducing Biblical characters and stories into the busy Advent Season.

I can guarantee a beautiful keepsake that will be used year after year. And the stories heard will help everyone grow in their knowledge of the Bible.

Each Sunday we will have a few more symbols and explanations on what they represent in the bulletin. We will also have a Jesse Tree displayed in the front of church with symbols being added each week.



Once again it's that time of year when the St. Vincent de Paul group of your parish gives you some idea of what they are about and asks for your continued aid. We have flourished well since we reorganized in November, 1973 and this could not have been done without the help of so many interested parishioners. Each year offerings are increased even as those asking for help have increased in numbers. Our activities have increased and the numbers helping with these activities have increased. Our Executive group has added new members and so ideas are new and worked upon with greater zest.

We are grateful to each of you, man, woman, and child, who has helped in any way, major or small, because you give us, the Executive Committee of SVDP the impetus to do this work in your name. Your support and our work grow hand in hand. Thank you.

An Ozanam News bulletin finds its way to St. John's quite often and this year there is an article written by Howard E. Halaska which we would like to share with you.

Vincentian Reflections In A Bicentennial Year

To give meaning to this country's bicentennial, Americans recall and seek to perpetuate historic values, both those which are common to all citizens and those which individual groups have developed and cherished in a unique way. Vincentians constitute one of these particular groups that can recall a worthy past and project a meaningful future.

As members of the Society, we are to name and explain this SVDP quality which we find so important and which we would like to see extended into the third century of U.S.A. history. The first article of the New Rule suggests quickly that which you are and that which you do. This declaration of love for God and neighbor, combined with SVDP's practical achievements in charity during almost 150 years, helps to ex- plain the constancy of Vincenpaul's appeal in every generation.

The Society of St. Vincent de Paul is an international Catholic organization of lay persons, founded in 1833 by Frederic Ozanam and his companions. Placed under the patronage of St. Vincent de Paul, it derives its inspiration from his thinking and work, and seeks, in a spirit of justice and charity and by a person-to-person involvement of its members, to help those who are suffering.

Reduced to concrete terms, this ideal is seen in the year 1976 as a grassroots charitable movement, a regular and consistent charity of 700,000 men, women, and children assisting through personal devotion, lovingly, and without recompense thousands of distraught and needy persons in 112 countries of the world. Even more important than Vincenpaul activities in any given year, however, is the spirit which has consistently animated Vincentian members and units. The responsible force or influence has been, as the rule suggests, the inspiration of the great saint of charity. If there is an SVDP dynamic, if there is a special SVDP message in this anniversary year, the life of St. Vincent de Paul contains that dynamic and message. We refer to him as our patron; he is also our abiding strength and model of Christian action.

New SVDP Growth Potential

he St. Vincent de Paul Society has finally caught up to St. John's. Their new Society Membership book states that women and children are welcome within the society. St. John's has had men, women, and children as members of their Executive and working Committees since November, 1973. The news bulletin states: "The numbers of women within the Society and their contribution as practitioners of charity are both bound to increase, if the enthusiasm registered at the Mid-year meeting of the Superior Council is any criterion. A new step was taken in order to augment their participation."

With the help of the Religious Education Programs of Service, the SVDP group has instituted an awareness program for the youth for their involvement with service to the parish in ways of charity. They will keep track of their hours of service in any area where they are volunteering to help another person or group so that they may see what areas they may become involved in and the amount of time they give to charitable work without even realizing it. We are hoping to do some consciousness raising while they are young in order to hopefully have efforts repeated as they become adults. One area of special interest to the Jr. High girls was shopping for the right meals for the poor. On the last Sunday monthly, a collection of foods is taken here at church. Some people either forget the food or decide to rather donate money. This money, donated on that Sunday, is then used to purchase fill-in foods. The Jr. High girls took care of the shopping for October and hopefully will continue to do so when they are able. At their next class session they were given some idea of how many people had already taken advantage of the foods purchased.

Liturgically Speaking...

by Fr. Burns

"If I were a king ...," immortal words uttered by Ronald Coleman (remember?). As children we built sand castles at the beach: we had visions of knights in armor and damsels in distress. Today, who knows very much about kings and queens, and yet the Church pauses to honor Christ the King. Why? Back in 1925, Pope Pius XI instituted the feast because he was alarmed at the rise of 'secularism' in the post-war world. He wanted people to honor Christ with service and fidelity and to pray for the coming of the kingdom.

Years later we gather on this Sunday to honor Christ the King. These words directed to us as written in the Council document, The Church in the Modern World, are helpful: "For the Lord wishes to spread His kingdom by means of the laity, a kingdom of truth and life, a kingdom of holiness and grace, a kingdom of justice, love, and peace. In this kingdom, creation itself will be delivered out of its slavery to corruption and into the freedom of the glory of the sons of God (cf. Rom. 8:21)."

As we contemplate our work in this world, let Christ guide us by his Spirit. We are in need of that guidance and especially want to have courage in the daily work of salvation. May his kingdom come, his will be done...
